

Adding the "Alt-Click" functionality to dashboard actions

Have you ever been authoring a dashboard in Tableau desktop with dashboard filter actions and you accidentally click where did intend to and now your dashboard filters which is not what you wanted? Happens all the time. With the addition of collapsible containers and dashboard buttons, Tableau has introduced the functionality that in order to use those features in desktop you have to "alt-click". This idea would add that functionality to dashboard actions.