

tableau prep output to csv should have encoding option and text qualifiers option in most Data transformation solutions, when dealing with files, you can define the encoding of the file and how do you deal with text qualifiers

(I.E what do you do when your comma separated file have commas in one of the text fields or other fields, how do you wrap them to let other software that it has charecters that need escaping)