

Trace Precedents & Dependents

Having the ability to know what the impact a dimension or measure has in the workbook (ex: calculated fields & views in the dashboards) would be very helpful. Might prevent people from making mistakes in removing data fields from the data source. Maybe even give the option to see visually like Excel with arrows or even a tableau view.

This would also help significantly when auditing files.