

worksheet templates

It would be great to be able to define a set of templates for worksheets with preset filters, initial fields, visualization types, etc... then to be able to select those templates when creating a new worksheet. This would help get going faster since in many cases we use the same starting point for many visualizations.