Make published dashboards look exactly like desktop dashboards

I'm sure we've all experienced how frustrating it is to build a dashboard in Desktop, only to publish it and it doesn't look the same. Filters, text sheets, etc. seem to move when published, resulting in a frustrating experience reformatting and republishing numerous times to get it to look the same.