Provide support for Tile Services (WMTS-OGC)

Background maps are essential and political sensitive. WMS is slow and not the right protocol for background services. We need (WMTS) Web Map Tile Service to be supported and hope Tableau could implement this fairly simple protocol that would allow us to choose other background maps then currently available. Additional would be ArcGIS online background maps if the user has an ArcGIS online account.