

Cross Database Unions

Expand the functionality that allows cross database joins to also allow unions within a single data source.

I would like to write custom sql against two different databases, ensuring they have matching columns, and then have them be treated as one data source by tableau.

This is similar to an existing idea, but rather than performing a union on multiple data sources, it would be contained within a single data source.