

Data Prep Append to file in output step

---

It would be great to be able to append to an existing file/data source from Data prep. A use case for this would be for when you receive monthly files but want a year-to-date data source. This would avoid having to reprocess files that have already been processed in previous months.